

Harold Finders, division chief executive officer, Financial Systems

Harold Finders is division chief executive officer of SunGard's Financial Systems. Based in Geneva, Switzerland, he is responsible for business strategy, profitability and growth and delivers a cohesive vision of SunGard to customers. Mr. Finders began his career with SunGard in 1996 through the acquisition of NCS Financial Systems. He has since held several different positions in senior management for SunGard. Previously, he held senior positions at Digital Equipment Corporation and led a divestment of its private banking business, taking on the role of managing director and subsequently selling the firm to NCS in 1994. Mr. Finders has an extensive career including more than 19 years in the international finance industry and in multicultural business environments. He is multi-lingual in English, French, German and Dutch. Mr. Finders holds an MBA from the University of Lausanne.